

Press Release

Cosmetochem International AG another step ahead in quality!

Steinhausen, July, 2012 – Cosmetochem International AG is now GMP certified!

We are proud to inform you that Cosmetochem International AG has reached another important goal in quality.

Cosmetochem International AG has long recognized GMP Good Manufacturing practices as a necessity for continual improvement, to ensure provision of products of a high level of quality and safety.

According to the EU regulations for cosmetic products all finished product manufacturers must comply with these GMP regulations as from 11. July 2013*. As a raw material producer Cosmetochem International AG regards it important to fulfill the same level of compliance, as relevant, in the supply of our products to customers.

Therefore, in order to express our quality commitment we have certified our company on June 27th 2012, according to the ISO Cosmetic GMP Norm 22716:2007.

You may download our current certificate (<http://www.cosmetochem.com/en/quality/quality-management/quality-certificates.html>) here or view it alternatively on the SQS website www.sqs.ch.
